

BENEFITS AND OBLIGATIONS OF ASSOCIATIONS

BENEFITS	OBLIGATIONS
Right to be the first to book one-off rental services in advance	Meets the subject association class criteria
Right to a Student Union Board mentor on the Student Union Board	Meets the subject association class criteria
Right to have representatives in organisations designated by the student union	Meets the subject association class criteria
Right to receive case-by-case support and guidance from the student union in advocacy work, in the reception of new students and in other activities	Meets the subject association class criteria
Option to apply for the operating grant	At least 60% of the association members with voting rights, but at least ten are members of AYY; the statutes of the association shall not restrict the possibility for members of the student union to become voting members of the association; in the event of the dissolution or disbandment of the association, its assets shall be transferred to another operator in accordance with section 11 of the association regulation. The association's financial statements shall be submitted within the application period.
Right to book one-off rental services in advance	At least 60% of the association members with voting rights, but at least ten are members of AYY; the statutes of the association shall not restrict the possibility for members of the student union to become voting members of the association; in the event of the dissolution or disbandment of the association, its assets shall be transferred to another operator in accordance with section 11 of the association regulation.
Hire of one-off services from the student union	Annual association notice; the activity is a student activity; at least ten of the regular members are members of AYY
Office and IT services, association training and counselling	Annual association notice; the activity is a student activity; at least ten of the regular members are members of AYY
Hire of club and storage facilities from the student union	Annual association notice; the activity is a student activity; at least ten of the regular members are members of AYY; generation of added value for the Aalto community. The association's financial statements must be provided with the application.

--	---

